Things to say

Trick or treat! 	Happy Halloween! 	Thank you! 	I'm a ____	Look at my costume! 	Can I have one?

How to Use This Board

Tap a picture: the phone says it. On paper, point to it and say it. A phrase under Things to say is said all at once.

The top two rows are the same on every SCAFLI place and event board, so help, stop and all done are always in the same spot.

The week before, look at the board together every day. Tap "Trick or treat!", "Thank you!" and "I'm a ____" yourself while you say them, at home and at the door. No need to ask your child to copy.

Agree on a way to stop or leave before you go: "all done", "I need a break" or "I want to go home". When your child taps it, honor it.

Practice both sides: knocking and saying "Trick or treat!", and opening the door and giving candy.

Make sure the costume leaves hands and eyes free to point or use the device.

I'm a ____: point to it, then let your child show or say what they are (point to the costume, a photo, a sign or a word).

Any try counts: a look, a point, a tap, a sound. Neighbors don't need to hear speech; the board can do the talking. Your child's own speech device or app, if they have one, always comes first.
